6. CHARITIES REPORT

Tony Davidson Treasurer of the Parish Charities committee presented the accounts for 2008/2009 and 2009/10. He gave an interesting and informative history of the charities. He also gave a potted history of the parish allotments; these were started originally after the end of the First World War on Parish Council land. The allotments were moved by the Benson family after 2nd World War for the convenience of the Toppesfield people to their present site which is now in new ownership. Allotments are exclusively for the use of persons on the Toppesfield Electoral Register. Tony was requested to write an article for the website. He was thanked for his helpful and interesting report.
